Modular Leasing Coverage Overview

By allowing Allen Insurance Group to make this modular leasing insurance available to your Lessee(s), you will no longer be bothered with the hassle of tracking certificates, dealing with cancellations, and worrying that your Lessee(s) have purchased less than the required limits of coverage.

Allen Insurance Group can offer your Customers the opportunity to buy insurance under your own general liability policy for much less than the cost of a stand-alone policy they could purchase themselves. Coverage begins as soon as the unit is assembled and ready for occupancy.
